Capture a greater share of the $25B dollar Off To College spend

The average student spends $1,400 across many retail categories before they arrive on campus. But, different than our TeacherLists™ K-12 school supply list solution (Back To School), where shopping happens in a tight window, College CheckLists drives Off To College sales over several months.

With our step-by-step process, it's easy to search and select from 2,000+ college or dorm-specific packing lists available on College CheckLists. And, just like TeacherLists, each list shows what to bring (plus what not to bring!) to start the school year. To choose all the items they need, students simply check boxes and then - with just one click - prepopulate the shopping cart for purchase and delivery by a major retailer.
